Community Clean up—Sat. March 31st

Join your neighbors and help give the community a Spring Cleaning on Sat, March 31. Meet at the Sunoco Station at 9:30 AM. Tools, gloves and a dumpster will be provided. Yes, a roll off dumpster is scheduled to appear that morning on Portland St.

Has anyone seen the RD tree trimmer, a red pole (extendable to 15 feet) with a nasty-looking cutter at the top? If you know its location, call Brian at 410-752-8746 or email president@ridgelysdelight.org.

Neighborhood Schools Wins Blue Ribbon

George Washington Elementary was awarded Blue Ribbon status. It was one of only six schools in Maryland to receive the honor this year, and one of only two elementary schools. George Washington pupils increased their scores on the Maryland State Assessment for the past three years and at least 92 percent of them achieved proficient or advanced status in reading and math. Ridgely's Delight is happy to congratulate our young scholars and staff!

Community Crime Update

Some good news on the crime front... arrests! A vigilant Ridgely's resident called the police concerning suspicious activity around the Warner St. apartments.
